

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. NOTE.

THE following pages contain a brief descriptive list, arranged alphabetically, of the most important bibliographies, and booksellers' and auctioneers' catalogues of old, scarce, and valuable books, pamphlets, manuscripts, maps and charts relating to the antiquities, history, and geography of North and South America, the West Indies, the Great South Sea, and voyages round the World. Of the general bibliographies not included in the present list, but which are of great value to Americanists, the reader should consult Brunet's Manual; Lowndes' Manual; Bibliotheca Grenvilliana; Harvard College Library Bulletins; Catalogues of the Boston Public Library, Library of Congress, Astor Library, Boston Athenaeum; and the works of DeBure, Antonio, Graesse, Boehmer, Panzer, and Meuselei.

BIBLIOTHECAS AMERICANA.

ABBOTT (G. M.) Contributions towards a Bibliography of the Civil War. Part I, Regimental Histories. Philadelphia. 1886

ALCEDO (Antonio de).

"Antonio de Alcedo y Bexarano, the author of the well-known Geographical Dictionary, compiled a Bibliotheca Americana, which never was printed. This bulky compilation seems to be based entirely upon Pinelo-Barcia, with the addition of a few bibliographical notes, which are of interest only when referring to modern American authors. The titles are given in alphabetical order, abridged, and selected with very little discrimination."—HARRISSE, Bib. Am. Vet., p. xxiv.

Manuscript copies are in the Sparks collection at Cornell, the John Carter-Brown library in Providence, and the library of H. H. Bancroft, of San Francisco.

See Geo. and His. Dic., Lond. 1812, vol. 1, p. xvv, for a list of books on America.

ALLAN (John). See Sabin, and Gowans.

ALLEN (E. G.) Catalogue of Books relating to America. 8vo, pp. 21. London. 1856

ALLEN. Old Books relating to America printed prior to 1800, most of them scarce and some rare. pp. 32. London. 1858-9

Allen was the successor of Rich.

ALLIBONE (S. A.) A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, living and deceased, from the earliest accounts to the latter half of the Nineteenth Century. With Forty Indexes of Subjects. 3 vols., impl. 8vo. Philadelphia. 1854-71

Supplement to Allibone's Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, by John Foster Kirk. 2 vols., 8vo. New York, 1891-2.

"The numerous well-chosen biographical and critical references appended to the names of the more prominent authors render it an absolute necessity to the conscientious student of English literature, while its great wealth of bibliographical information and curious lore should make it the vade mecum of the book collector and the literary antiquary."

—SABIN.

ALMON (J.) A new Catalogue of Books and Pamphlets printed for J. Almon. 1760-1770. 8vo, pp. 16. London. [1770]

Contains a list of pamphlets published in America on colonial taxation, 1770. Almon was an active pamphleteer and publisher during the War of the Revolution.

American Antiquarian Society. Catalogue of Books in the Library of the American Antiquarian Society, in Worcester, Massachusetts. 8vo (each letter has a separate pagination, pp. 571 in all). Worcester. 1837

The collection consists mainly of early American pamphlets, many of which are of exceeding rarity. The American Historical Review, vol. 1, no. 2, p. 378, contains an account of the library and its notable collections of American books, pamphlets, newspapers, and manuscripts.

The American Catalogue of Books; or English Guide to American Literature. Giving the full Title of Original Works published in the United States since 1800 to 1855: with especial reference to works of interest to Great Britain. With the prices, &c. 8vo. London: S. Low. 1856

ANGLIM (J.) Catalogue of Books and Pamphlets relating to the Civil War. Washington. 1882

ANGLIM. Catalogue of Books and Pamphlets on the Civil War. Washington. 1886

Annual American Catalogue for 1886. [Continued each year.] New York: Office of the Publishers' Weekly. 1886-96
Indispensable to booksellers and collectors.

ANDRADE (J. M.) Catalogue de la riche Bibliothèque de José Maria Andrade. 7,000 pièces et volumes, ayant rapport au Mexique ou imprimés dans ce pays. 8vo, pp. 368. Leipzig. 1869

The Maximilian library, which was sold at auction in Leipzig, Germany, January 18, 1869. Comprised works of special reference to aboriginal America, and included copies of the first four books printed in the New World. See American Biblioplist, vol. I, no. 3.

APPONYI (F. H.) The Libraries of California. Containing descriptions of the Principal Private and Public Libraries throughout the State, by Flora Haines Apponyi. 8vo, pp. 304. San Francisco. 1878

ASHER (A.) A short Bibliographical Memoir of the Collection of Voyages and Travels published by Levinus Hulsius, at Nuremberg and Francfort, from 1598 to 1660. By A. Asher. 8vo, pp. 16. [Berlin.] 1833

Extracted from No. 35 of Asher's Monthly list of Old Books.

The collected voyages of Hulsius are printed in the German language, and are devoted chiefly to the voyages of the Dutch. The set described in the above memoir was collected by Mr. Adolph Asher, the Berlin bookseller, who afterwards sold them to Mr. Thomas Grenville. Six years later this brief catalogue was enlarged and 120 copies printed in 4to, as follows:

ASHER. Bibliographical Essay on the Collection of Voyages and Travels, edited and published by Levinus Hulsius and his Successors, at Nuremberg and Francfort, from anno 1598 to 1660. By A. Asher. Sm. 4to., 3 l., pp. 118. London and Berlin: A. Asher. 1839

See Bib. Am. Vet., p. xxvi.

ASHER (G. M.) A Bibliographical and Historical Essay on the Dutch Books and Pamphlets relating to New-Netherland, and to the Dutch West-India Company and to its possessions in Brazil, Angola, etc. As also on the maps, charts, &c., of New-Netherland 4to, pp. lii, 234, 22, 23, 2 l. Amsterdam: F. Muller. 1854-67

Contains facsimiles of the map of New Netherland by N. I. Visscher, and of the three existing views of New Amsterdam. These essays were written by Mr. Asher for Frederick Muller, the bookseller. The books described were in the Dutch public and private libraries of Amsterdam and in the collection of Mr. Muller. Indispensable to the collectors of books relating to New York. The titles are given at length in Dutch, with an English translation. The notes, which are chiefly historical, are numerous, and in some instances, extend to great length.

"One of the fullest and most accurate bibliographical works known on any subject."—STEVENS.

See Bib. Am. Vet., p. xxxvi. Trübner, Bib. G., p. xx.

ASPINWALL (Thomas). Catalogue of Books relating to America, in the Collection of Colonel Aspinwall, Consul of the United States of America at London. 8vo, pp. (4), 66.

[Paris. 1831?]

Comprised 771 lots, which formed one of the earliest collections of rare and valuable books on America. The collection, which was afterwards increased to about 4,000 volumes, was sold in 1863 to Mr. Samuel L. M. Barlow, of New York. Five hundred volumes of the rarest portion were sent in advance and placed in the private library of Mr. Barlow. The remaining 3,500 volumes were destroyed in the fire which consumed the establishment of Bangs Brothers, where the rest of the collection had been temporarily stored.

See Bib. Am. Vet., p. xxx. note.

BACHILER (Antonio). Apuntes para la historia de las Letras, y de la Instruccion publica de la Isla de Cuba. Por Antonio Bachiler y Morales. 8vo, Part III, pp. 121-241. Habana. 1861

Describes a number of works published in the island of Cuba from the time of the introduction of printing thither to the year 1840.

BAKER (William Spohn). Bibliotheca Washingtoniana: Descriptive list of the Biographies and Biographical Sketches of George Washington. Portrait, 4to, pp. xv, 179.

Cleveland. 1875

BANDELIER (A. F.) Notes on the Bibliography of Yucatan and Central America.

Published in the American Antiquarian Society Proceedings, N. S., vol. 1, pp. 82-118.

BARCIA (Andres Gonzalez). Epitome de la Biblioteca Oriental, y Occidental, Nautica y Geografica. De Don Antonio de Leon Pinelo, del Consejo de su Mag. en la Casa de la Contratacion de Sevilla, y Coronista Maior de las Indias, añadido, y enmendado nuevamente, en que se contienen los escritores de las Indias Orientales, y Occidentales, y Reinos convecinos China, Tartaria, Japon, Persia, Armenia, Etiopia, y otras partes. Al Rey nuestro señor. Por mano del Marques de Torre-Neuva, su Secretario del Despacho Universal de Hacienda, Indias i Mexico. Con Privilegio. 3 vols., folio.

En Madrid: En la oficina de Francisco Martinez Abad, en la Culle del Olivo Bazo. Año de M.D.CO.XXXVII

Vols. 2 and 3 are dated M.D.CO.XXXVIII. The collection of books and manuscripts relating to America is in Vol. 2.

"Barcia's work is an immense repertorium, containing abridged titles, all translated into Spanish, and fraught with inaccuracies of all kinds. The multiplicity of indices, and the different paginations render this bulky compilation of little use, although in the midst of a chaotic mass, painstaking bibliographers may discover notices, especially in the mention of manuscript sources, which could not be found in any other work. Many of the errors which mar the utility of subsequent bibliographies can be traced to Pinelo-Barcia."—HARRISS, Bib. Am. Vet. p. xvii.

"The most complete general Bibliography of Geographical Works, Travels, Missionary Reports, etc."—"Its greatest value consists in the notices it gives of the Spanish manuscripts on the subjects, most of which are still existing in Spain."—RICH, Bib. Am. Nova.

See Field's Indian Bibliography, p. 19-21.

BARROS ARANA (Diego). Notas para una Bibliografia de obras anónimas i pseudónimas sober la America. 4to.

Santiago de Chile. 1882

The anonymous authors of 507 books published between the years 1492 and 1876 are in this work brought to light.

BARTLETT, and WELFORD. Catalogue of Books, Ancient and Modern, in every department of Literature and Science. 8vo, pp. 154. [pp. 128-154, Books Relating to America.]

New York. MDCCCXLI

BARTLETT, and WELFORD. Catalogue. Part II. American History. 8vo. New York. 1844

"Mr. Bartlett was early in life a dealer in books in New York; and the Americana catalogues of Bartlett and Welford, forty years ago, were among the best of dealers' lists."—WINSOR, Nar. and Crit. His. of Am., vol. 1, p. xii.

BARTLETT (J. R.) Bibliography of Rhode Island. A Catalogue of Books and Other Publications relating to the State of Rhode Island, with notes, Historical, Biographical and Critical. By John Russell Bartlett. 8vo, pp. iv, 287. Providence. 1864

BARTLETT. Literature of the Rebellion. A Catalogue of Books and Pamphlets relating to the Civil War in the United States, and on Subjects growing out of that Event, together with Works on American Slavery, and Essays from Reviews and Magazines on the Same Subjects. Compiled by John Russell Bartlett rl. 8vo, pp. 477. Boston. 1866

BARTLETT. Bibliotheca Americana. A Catalogue of Books relating to North and South America in the Library of John Carter Brown of Providence, R. I. Part I, 1493 to 1600; Part II, 1601 to 1700; Part III, 1700 to 1800. With Notes by John Russell Bartlett. 4 vols., impl. 8vo. Providence. 1865-82

Vol. 1 (printed in 1865), includes 302 titles, 1493-1600; vol. 2 (1868), 1,160 titles, 1601-1700; vol. 3 (2 parts, 1870-71), 4,173 titles, 1701-1800. Vol. 1 was reprinted in 1875 with the addition of 298 titles, 1482-1601, and vol. 2 was similarly enlarged and reprinted with 482 more titles, 1600-1700, in 1882. A few copies of the 1875 edition of vol. 1 bear this title: Bibliographical Notices of Rare and Curious Books relating to America, printed in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, in the library of the late John Carter Brown, by John Russell Bartlett.

"Mr. Bartlett has performed his part in a most admirable manner. To a faithful description of the books themselves, he has added numerous and judicious notes of his own as to their character, besides presenting an analytical view of the contents of the more extensive publications. Besides, whenever he has found a valuable note by another hand relating to the books, its author or subject, he has not failed to avail himself of it. The maps he has chosen for illustration are few, but they are choice. The titles, portraits, printers' devices, vignettes, and woodcuts in facsimile are profuse, carrying the mind back to the past, to revel in the early times to which they relate. In adopting this auxiliary of description Mr. Bartlett has gone far beyond other bibliographers. As it is, the fortunate possessor of this volume [vol. 1, 1875] will have all the means which can be afforded for collation with the books it describes except the works themselves."—H. C. MURPHY, in American Biblioplist, vol. 7, no. 77.

Mr. Brown was a large buyer of rare books from the collections formed by Obadiah Rich in London and Henri Ternaux in Paris.

This famous library of Americana of works published between the years 1482 and 1800 is well nigh perfect, and is quite unsurpassed.

See Nar. and Crit. His. of Am., vol. 3, p. 380. American Biblioplist, vol. 6, no. 65, and vol. 7, no. 74.

BARTLETT. List of Books printed in Mexico, 1540-1600. Providence. 1875

Paris: Maisonneuve & Cie. 1871

This noted French traveler was engaged in explorations and researches into the antiquities of North America, particularly in the United States, Mexico and Central America, from 1848 till 1863.

"It is very difficult to assign the place which this extraordinary man will occupy in the annals of science, for his works are to-day nearly as great mysteries as the hieroglyphs his labors have illustrated. His industry in his researches into the history of the Aztec races is something not less than marvelous. * * * He stands alone in the vast temple of learning which he has restored, if he did not erect. His numerous volumes have at least this merit: They have done much to perpetuate the memory of a wonderful race."—T. W. FIELD, Essay on Indian Bibliography, pp. 43-45.

BROTHERHEAD (W.) Forty Years among the Old Booksellers of Philadelphia, with Bibliographical Remarks. By W. Brotherhead [bookseller]. Sm. 4to, pp. 122. Philadelphia. 1891

Pleasant reminiscences of bibliophiles, old books and old book dealers. In January, 1857, Mr. Brotherhead began the publication of American Notes and Queries, the first American magazine devoted to this subject matter. Only four numbers were issued.

BRUNET. Notice Bibliographique sur la Collection des Voyages de De Bry. Paris. 1860

Also in the fifth edition of Manuel du Libraire, and a translation by C. A. Cutter in Sabin's Dictionary, vol. 5, which was separately issued, New York, 1869.

Mexici: Ex novâ Typographiâ in Ædibus Authoris editioni ejusdem Bibliothecæ destinatâ. Anno Domini MDCLV

"It contains the most authentic notes on the literature and literary men of Mexico."—SABIN, Bib. of Bib.

"It is unfortunate that no more of this important work was published."—RICH, Bib. Am. Nova.

"The prolixity of the dissertations, the lack of criticism, and the fact that every title is translated into Latin deter greatly from the merit of this work."—HARRISSE, Bib. Am. Vet.

This work may be considered the first bibliography of the works of native writers in the New World.

FARIBAUT (G. B.) Catalogue d'ouvrages sur l'histoire de l'Amérique, et en particulier sur celle du Canada, de la Louisiane, de l'Acadie, et autre lieux, ci-devant connus sous le nom de Nouvelle-France; avec des notes bibliographiques, critiques et littéraires. En Trois Parties. Rédigé par G. B. Faribault, Avocat. 8vo, pp. (2), 207. Québec: W. Cowan. 1837

Part I, authors arranged alphabetically: Part II, anonymous works, chronologically, and, Part III, a catalogue of maps, charts, and plans. Descriptive notes accompany many of the titles.

This enthusiastic Canadian antiquarian, while occupying an official position at Montreal, made a collection of 16,000 volumes relating to America. The library was lost by fire in 1849. Faribault at once began to gather books for another collection.

"A list of works, clipped chiefly from booksellers' catalogues. * * * The list abounds in errors of all kinds."—HARRISSE, Bib. Am. Vet., p. xxxvi.

- FIELD (T. W.) An Essay towards an Indian Bibliography. Being a Catalogue of Books, relating to the History, Antiquities, Languages, Customs, Religion, Wars, Literature, and Origin of the American Indians, in the Library of Thomas W. Field. With Bibliographical and Historical Notes, and Synopses of the Contents of some of the Works least known. 8vo, pp. iv, 430. New York: Scribner, Armstrong & Co. 1873

Nearly two thousand works in Latin, Spanish, Dutch and English.

The most extensive list of books on the American Indians. Mr. Field devoted many years to the acquisition of the books, and his notes, which are numerous, convey much valuable information concerning not only the books, but the Indians themselves.

"The reader of the Essay will not fail to notice the strong humanitarian views which are held by Mr. Field. It would be difficult for any one to add to the energetic adjectives which distinguish some of his denunciations of the perpetrators of cruelties on the Indians."—SABIN.

"This bibliographical handbook, embracing a collection of about 1800 works, may be considered the chief, if not the only one of its kind. The author's notes are judicious and valuable, and have an interest beyond even the actual subject of the Essay. Collectors of Americana of every kind will derive pleasure and profit from a labour that evinces a wide range of study and experience."—B. QUARITCH.

In 1875 this collection was sold at auction by Bangs. See Sabin.

- [FISCHER (Augustin).] Bibliotheca Mejicana: A Catalogue of an extraordinary Collection of Books & Manuscripts, almost wholly relating to the History and Literature of North and South America, particularly Mexico. 8vo, pp. (4), 312, 41, (1).

London: Puttick & Simpson. 1869

This collection was formed by Fisher, who was Chaplain to the Emperor of Mexico. It contains some of the earliest specimens of Mexican printing. A portion of the catalogue was the property of Dr. Berendt, of Vera Cruz. See American Biblioplist, vol. 1, no. 9.

- FINOTTI (Joseph M.) Bibliographia Catholica Americana: A List of Works by Catholic Authors, and Published in the United States. Part I. From 1784 to 1820 inclusive. 8vo. pp. 318, (1.) New York. 1872

By a Member of the said Society. 4to, pp. (2), xvi, iii, 275, (224). London: Printed for J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row. 1713

"In this short Catalogue may be found about twenty original tracts relating to Newfoundland; about fifty concerning Virginia; a hundred or more of New England; and so on in proportion to other Colonies and Plantations."—DEDICATION.

"This, as far as it goes, is the best Catalogue of Books relating to America extant, the titles being copied at full length with the greatest exactness, together with the name of the printer, and the number of pages in each volume."—RICH, Bib. Am. Nova.

"He was a great collector of Books on America, and it has generally been supposed that he left his large collection to the Society for Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. But on reference it is found that he only offered to give his American collection to the society in case they would provide suitable rooms for it. The society did not, and hence the books were dispersed. But his main library of Miscellaneous Books was left to the Cathedral of Petersburg, where it is still carefully preserved."—STEVENS, Historical Collections, p. 142.

"The library is still in existence in London, though it lacks many titles given in the printed catalogue, and shows others not in that volume."—WINSON, Narrative and Critical History of America.

4to. Engraved title and 43 prel. leaves; text, 186 pp. 'Appendice,' vii pp., and colophon 1 leaf.—STEVENS, Nuggets, No. 1674.

Authors given alphabetically, followed by a list of anonymous books.

The bibliography which Leon Pinelo prepared embraced every work, whether printed or in manuscript, relating to Spanish America. Pinelo intended to add this extensive list to his history of the Council of the Indies, of which he was Chronicler at that time. It is an interesting fact to Americanists that the first Bibliotheca Americana was prepared by a native of the New World.

"The author of this little work, probably the first which contains a catalogue of Books relating to America, afterwards took the surname of Pinelo. Barcia's numerous additions are so clumsily thrown together that it is quite a relief to refer from it to this neat and well arranged little manual."—RICH, A Catalogue of Books (1832), p. 48.
